

How important is it for students to educate themselves about personal finance BEFORE graduating?

Are you interested in locating resources to help plan for your financial future?

Do you believe Maag should add more PRINT books to Reference & General Collections?

Will you return to the Financial Literacy Guide in the future for personal finance information?

